VANCOUVER

CHEF DAVID HAWSWORTH'S REINVENTION OF FINE DINING IN DOWNTOWN VANCOUVER'S ROSEWOOD HOTEL GEORGIA combines innovative cuisine with West Coast ease. The Munge Leung-designed Hawksworth Restaurant boasts original artwork by the likes of Damien Hirst and a menu filled with whimsical interpretations of classic fare such as tomato gazpacho infused with olive oil, and zero-proof cocktails such as lavender lemonade and coconut soda. 801 W. Georgia St.

Céline creative director Phoebe Philo? The fashion house's new 2,500-square-foot flagship joined the neighbourhood this past summer, just in time to showcase star pieces from Philo's Fall '11 collection: structured trench coats and the coveted doctor's bag. 16 Rue de Grenelle.

Celebrity hairstylist John Nollet—clients include Marion Cotillard and Diane Kruger—is taking up residency in the Park Hyatt Paris-Vendôme. The French coiffeur's new Suite 101 salon is outfitted with swoon-worthy mementos from his travels, including three bespoke suitcases that Louis Vuitton created especially for him. 5 Rue de la Paix.
