

Gatsby glam comes to life at The Plaza Hotel

Soon to be revived on the big screen in Baz Lurhmann's adaptation of The Great Gatsby, the glamour of the Roaring '20s also comes to life at New York's The Plaza Hotel.

Conceived by Catherine Martin – Lurhmann's partner in crime and winner of costume design and art direction Oscars for Moulin Rouge! – The Plaza's Fitzgerald Suite will feature elegant Art Deco touches and period-inspired furniture, along with photos from the upcoming film and of Gatsby author F. Scott Fitzgerald and his wife Zelda in the Jazz-age heyday.

The suite opens May 10th – the same day Leonardo DiCaprio's Jay Gatsby arrives on the big screen – but in true Gatsby style, the festivities at the hotel have already begun. In celebration, the hotel has partnered with Moët on a themed champagne bar (and signature Moët Imperial Gatsby cocktail), along with live Jazz and a Prohibition-inspired Speakeasy drink menu in the hotel's Rose Club bar, themed tea service and spa treatments, and a display of props and costumes used in the film.

"Can't repeat the past?...Why of course you can!" uttered Gatsby in the beloved novel. Thanks to The Plaza that holds true.

Closer to home

Enjoy some Gatsby-style revelling with classic cocktails and award-winning cuisine at Vancouver's Hawksworth Restaurant. Located in the beautifully-restored 1927 gem the Rosewood Hotel Georgia, the Deco-style glass chandelier and other touches in the restaurant's Pearl Room channel Jazz-age elegance.
